Singapore – October 29, 2021 – Over two weekends, The Food Bank Singapore (FBSG) welcomed 450 cars from 20 car clubs who donated 26 tonnes of food for its Drive Hunger Away event that was held in conjunction with World Food Day 2021 on October 16. The event was extended from three to four days this year to give more drivers the opportunity to participate.

Fist-bumping in appreciation of the effort.

Drivers from two car clubs delivered 1,300 food bundles to 11 beneficiary centres, including REACH Community Services.

“We are so thankful for the immense support from the participating drivers in joining our fight to eradicate food insecurity in Singapore. Their efforts have not gone unnoticed as more car clubs have told us that they want to be involved too so we’re thinking of organising monthly food drives for different clubs,” said Nichol Ng, Co-founder of FBSG.
